

CHAPTER BYLAWS NOTRE DAME HIGH SCHOOL

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Notre Dame High School of Green Pond Chapter of Future Business Leaders of America.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

Section 1. The purpose of our FBLA chapter is to provide additional opportunities for high school students to develop vocational competencies for business and office occupations and business teacher education. FBLA is an integral part of the instructional program and in addition promotes a sense of civic and personal responsibility.

Section 2. The specific goals of FBLA are to:

- Develop competent, aggressive business leadership.
- Strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and their work.
- Create more interest in and understanding of American business enterprise.
- Encourage members in the development of individual projects, which contribute to the improvement of home, business, and community.
- Develop character, prepare for useful citizenship, and foster patriotism.
- Encourage and practice efficient money management.
- Encourage scholarship and promote school loyalty.
- Assist students in the establishment of occupational goals.
- Facilitate the transition from school to work.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. FBLA membership shall consist of members of our chartered local chapter. These members shall hold membership in their state and national chapters. Individual members shall be recognized only through a state chapter of FBLA except, in the case where there is no state chapter, the member shall be recognized by the national association.

Section 2. National FBLA , as well as the state and our local chapter, shall be open for membership to these classes of members:

Active members shall be secondary students who become members while enrolled in business and/or business-related fields, who accept the purpose of FBLA, subscribe to its creed, demonstrate willingness to contribute to good school-community relations, and possess qualities for employment. Active members shall pay dues as established by FBLA and may participate in national events, in accordance with the guidelines of the National Awards Program, serve as voting delegates to the National Leadership Conference, hold national office in accordance with Article VI, and otherwise represent their state and local chapters as approved by their respective state and local advisers.

ARTICLE IV. DUES AND FINANCE

Section 1. Dues. National dues shall be based on fiscal reports by the national center and on recommendations by the national executive council and the board of directors and shall be determined by a majority vote of the local voting delegates at the National Leadership Conference. National dues of members shall be forwarded directly to the FBLA national center or shall be submitted through state chapters at the discretion of the state chapter. Membership dues are unified on local, state, and national levels and are not available separately.

Section 2. The membership dues in Future Business Leaders of America shall be $20.00 a year, of which $6.00 shall be remitted to the FBLA national center in payment of the national dues and $6.00 to the FBLA state chapter in payment of state dues, $5.00 in payment of regional dues, and $3.00 in payment of chapter dues..

Section 3. The fiscal year of the Future Business Leaders of America shall be July 1 through June 30.

Section 4. An audit shall be made annually by the auditing committee, which shall report at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE V. OFFICERS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Officers of the chapter shall be: president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, reporter, parliamentarian, and members at large. These officers with the adviser as ex officio member shall constitute the executive committee. Officers shall be elected at the annual meeting and shall hold office for a term of one year or until their successors are elected. Officers shall assume their duties at the close of the meeting at which they were elected.

Section 2. The chapter shall have an adviser who shall be a faculty member from the business department. This chapter may have as many special-emphasis groups under the chapter charter as it deems necessary to accommodate the interests of all students and shall assume full responsibility for coordinating the program for these interest groups.

Section 3. The chapter may have an advisory counsel, which shall consist of educators, alumni, and other area business leaders.

ARTICLE VI. DUTIES OF FBLA OFFICERS

Section 1. The president shall (a) preside over all meetings of the chapter, (b) appoint all committees and serve as an ex officio member of these committees, and (c) promote the growth and development of FBLA.

Section 2. The vice president shall (a) preside in the absence of the president, and (b) assist the president.

Section 3. The secretary shall (a) keep an accurate record of the chapter and executive committee meetings, and (b) submit the required reports to the state chapter and the national center.

Section 4. The treasurer shall (a) act as custodian of the funds of the organization, collect dues, and give financial reports, and (b) send the membership list with dues to the state and national offices.

Section 5. The parliamentarian shall (a) serve in any capacity as directed by the president, and (b) advise the president or presiding officer on points of parliamentary procedure.

Section 6. The reporter shall (a) act as public relations office for the chapter, (b) see that news stories and photographs are delivered to the school paper, the local newspaper, the news bulletin and the Tomorrow's Business Leader, and (c) cooperate with the school official concerning assembly, radio and television programs

Section 7. The members at large shall chair committees and work with other officers as needed.

Section 8. The officers shall serve on the executive committee, and perform such duties as directed by the president and the adviser and not inconsistent with these bylaws or other rules adopted by the chapter.

ARTICLE VII. MEETINGS

Section 1. There must be at least one regular meeting a month during the school year. The regular May meeting shall be designated as the annual meeting for the purpose of electing officers, receiving reports of officers and committees, and for any other business which may arise. Other meetings may be held as deemed necessary by the president with the approval of the executive committee.

Section 2. Quorum. Fifty-one percent of the members of the chapter shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII. COMMITTEES

Section 1. The president, on consultation with the adviser, shall appoint the following committees: (a) nominating, (b) auditing, (c) ways and means, (d) social, and (e) finance and fundraising. The president shall appoint additional committees as authorized by the executive committee. Duties of committees shall be determined by the executive committee and the adopted parliamentary authority.

Section 2. Local chapters may select advisory committees to assist in the growth and development of their respective chapters.

ARTICLES IX. EMBLEMS, INSIGNIA & COLORS

Section 1. The chapter emblems shall be the emblems of the national organization.

Section 2. The official emblem and insignia items and designs are described and protected from infringement by registration in the US Patent Office under the Trademark Act of 1946. The manufacture, reproduction, wearing, or display of the emblem shall be governed by the board of directors.

Section 3. Emblems and insignia shall be uniform in all local and state chapters and within special-emphasis groups; they shall be those of FBLA. Only members in good standing may use official emblems and insignia.

Section 4. The official colors of FBLA shall be blue and gold.

ARTICLE X. PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the chapter in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the rules of FBLA-PBL, Inc., these bylaws, or any special rules of order the chapter may adopt.

ARTICLE XI. AMENDMENT OF THE BYLAWS

Amendments to the bylaws shall be submitted in writing at a regular meeting and shall not be voted on until the following regular meeting. A two-thirds vote of the members present shall be required for adoption.
