SCHOOL PROFILE 2018-2019

Notre Dame High School is a four-year co-educational Catholic High School serving the greater Easton, Pennsylvania and Phillipsburg, New Jersey area. An enrollment of 500 is divided into college prep, AP, honors, and vocational-technical curriculum for grades 9 through 12. The Aquinas program provides academic support for students with learning differences. The school year is divided into two semesters of 18 weeks each, with nine-week reporting periods. The school is supervised by the Allentown Diocese Department of Education and is accredited by the Middle States Association and the Pennsylvania Department of Education. High schools within the Allentown Diocese do not rank students.

The school is comprised of students from four surrounding Pennsylvania counties and two counties in New Jersey. It has a diverse socioeconomic background and varies in character from urban to suburban. The community is mostly residential with several commercial and light industrial areas.
